WellStar College
Faculty Remuneration Policies
(Enacted December 5, 2016; Revised May 11, 2017; June 30, 2017)
The WellStar College of Health and Human Services Faculty Remuneration policy document is designed to explain the remuneration policies for faculty in WellStar College. Failure to meet the conditions of the Compensation Policy will result in no payment. There are no extensions granted, and no exceptions. The financial consequences are: not receiving the payment because of a salary cap overage and/or accepting a reduced amount in order to not exceed the applicable salary cap.

If you have any questions regarding the policies, please contact the Dean’s Office.
Hybrid Courses Developed by Full Time Faculty

To promote the migration to more online courses, $1500 will be provided for the redesign of a traditional course to a hybrid course (50% online, 50% face-to-face).

- The hybrid course must be shared with the department/college to be eligible for these funds.
- Hybrid courses must successfully complete the KSU Quality Matters review process (meaning, using the QM Rubric, the course has met standards and been “certified” by KSU for 3 years).
- Once approved, the developed hybrid course must be taught within the next 12 months.
- Courses that are subsequently converted from hybrid to online will be eligible for a $2500 payment only.
- Compensation provided cannot exceed the 20% salary cap (33.33% in summer for 9-month faculty).
- Faculty cannot receive both a workload reduction and the $1500 payment for developing an hybrid course
- See WCHHS Policies for Developing Hybrid Courses for more information about developing hybrid courses (http://wellstarcollege.kennesaw.edu/distancelearning/hybrid-courses.php)

Teaching Online Courses

WCHHS Information:
- The online teaching compensation incentive is distributed by Dr. Elke Leeds, Associate Vice President, Office of Technology Enhanced Learning.
- All faculty (full or part time) in WCHHS must be certified to teach online.
- Online Teaching Compensation funds will be disbursed ONLY for courses that have been approved by KSU.
- Compensation provided cannot exceed the 20% salary cap (33.33% in summer for 9-month faculty).

Overview:
- The Online Teaching Compensation incentive has been modified to scale compensation across credit hours.
- This will be applicable to both graduate and undergraduate courses.
- Compensation for teaching an online course must be paid as monetary compensation.
- The Office of Technology Enhanced Learning will be providing an electronic form and election system to facilitate notification, record-keeping and routing.
- The online teaching compensation system will now be applied according to the following*
  o 1-2 Credit Hours - $25 per student
  o 3 Credit Hours - $50 per student
  o 4-5 Credit Hours - $75 per student
  o 6 Credit Hours - $100 per student
  *Enrollments are calculated after the last day to withdraw without academic penalty
- The online teaching compensation continues to apply to online courses that have been internally reviewed according to the KSU Quality Matters guidelines and offered only to the listed faculty of record that hold current online teaching certification.
- Online teaching compensation is included in the last payroll of each semester (December – Fall semester, May – Spring semester, July – Summer semester).

Failure to meet the conditions of the Compensation Policy will result in no payment. There are no extensions granted, and no exceptions. The financial consequences are:
- Not receiving the payment because of a salary cap overage
- Accepting a reduced amount in order to not exceed the applicable salary cap.
