KENNESAW STATE UNIVERSITY
ACADEMY FOR INCLUSIVE LEARNING AND SOCIAL GROWTH

ADVANCED LEADERSHIP AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

ILLUMINATE YOUR FUTURE

ADVANCING
CAREER DEVELOPMENT,
SELF-ADVOCACY,
LEADERSHIP AND INDEPENDENCE
ACADEMIC EXPLORATION

through an inclusive post-secondary opportunity for students with different intellectual and developmental abilities.
If you have graduated from Kennesaw State University’s Academy ASCE program or another inclusive post-secondary program, you know the value college has brought to your life.

NOW IS THE TIME TO CONTINUE THE HARD WORK YOU HAVE ALREADY STARTED.

The ALCD Program seeks to provide graduates of inclusive post-secondary programs the opportunity to do deeper work in the areas of:

Career Development • Self-Advocacy, Leadership and Independence • Academic Exploration

THROUGH THE PROGRAM YOU WILL ENJOY

• Extended internship hours
• Student mentor support for academic and social engagement
• Weekly seminars on career and independent living
• Opportunities to build relationships with agencies supportive in the transition process, and explore a customized self-advocacy and independence curriculum.
• Travel to local, national, and even international agencies, conferences, and events in order to develop advocacy, networking, and empowerment skills.
• Academic exploration in at least one class related to your vocational placement and based on interest/aptitude.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

You should have a completion credential from an inclusive post-secondary program, which you completed in good standing.

You will submit an application, complete credentials and transcripts, and three reference forms.

Reference forms will be required from a faculty member, a student/peer mentor, and a work place supervisor.

Applicants must have no significant behavioral or emotional problems that will impact school performance and should be able to follow rules and regulations of the university.

For more information, visit www.kennesaw.edu/chhs/academy or email us at academyadmissions@kennesaw.edu